

Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. (1CORINTHIANS 4: 1)

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 24

BE A STEWARD OF GOD'S MYSTERIES

Here, Apostle Paul is saying,

“Let people see us as the servant of Christ, and as stewards of the mysteries of God”.

A steward is a person whose job is to serve meals and take care of others.
Someone who is employed in a large household or estate, to manage domestic concern – such as, the supervision of servants, collection of rents, and keeping of accounts.
And someone who supervise the provision and distribution of food and drinks.

What a position to occupy!
There is no one who occupies such position and lack, or let say, go home hungry; and this is just ‚man's estate.

But Apostle Paul said, we should be considered as stewards of the mysteries of God – we are to be considered as those who manages God's estate, and household.

The fact that God's estate is called a 'mystery', is because not everyone knows it.
And because it is a mystery, it needs to be search out.
For anyone to be a steward of God's mysteries, he/she must first desire it, then search for it.

Jesus said,
“Again, the kingdom of God is like a treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”
He also said,
“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls. Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it" (Matt. 13:44-46)

Because Jesus said, God's mysteries is like a treasure hidden in a field, and a man found it; or God's mysteries is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls and found it – shows the mysteries is discoverable to those who will search for it.

Once you find it, you will be able to be a steward of it to your household, your children, your spouse, your families, your friends and to your neighbors – because God's mysteries is a nourishing meal for all souls.

THINK IT OUT

Are you ready to be a steward of God's mysteries? Would you search for it?

PRAYER:

Dear heavenly Father thank You, for calling us to be stewards of Your mysteries. Give the courage to seek the truth like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls; so that I can also be a steward of it.
